Sermon: I Go to Prepare a Place (John 14:1-6) 10:30am - 11:30am This section opens and closes with our Lord's loving admonition, "Let not your heart be troubled" (John 14:1, 27). We are not surprised that the Apostles were troubled. After all, Jesus had announced that one of them was a traitor, and then He warned Peter that he would deny his Lord three times. Self- confident Peter was confident that he could follow his Lord and even die with Him and for Him. Alas, Peter did not know his own heart, nor do we really know our hearts, except for one thing: our hearts easily become troubled. PM Worship 6:00pm - 7:00pm

Sermon: That We
May Be One (John 17:11-16)
10:30am - 11:30am
One thought rising before the mind of Jesus now deepens His earnestness of entreaty on behalf of His disciples,—the contrast between their condition and His
own. His labours and sorrows are over, but they are left behind in the struggle which He is leaving. The very greatness of His joy in the thought of His own glorious return to His Father rouses His tenderest sympathy
for those who have so much to do and to suffer before they can share His joy
